LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Santa Claus has appointed his editors of the Daily Telegram special agents to receive all letters sent to him by girls and boys. The letters will be printed in the Daily Telegram and then put in a special mail bag and sent to Santa every night at midnight. There are so many letters that all can not be printed in one issue of the Telegram but they will appear in their turn. Address the letters to

SANTA CLAUS,
127 Ireland Avenue,
Land of the Midnight Sun
Care Telegram, Clarksburg, W. Va.

The following are some of the letters that have been received and sent on to Santa Claus:

Dear Santa Claus:
I would like to have a train of cars, fire wagon and hook and ladder, a great big tool chest with lots of tools in it, stable with three mules looking out the windows and a chicken on a board going down from the stable.
Yours truly,
Robert Leggett.

Dear Santa Claus:
I saw in the Telegram where you want me to write to you. Please bring me a train run on a track, sled, dumb bells, 3 nice story books and candies, nuts and fruits.
Yours truly,
Harry Hall Kinnaird,
711 Leunst Street.

Dear Santa Claus:
I want a ship and soldiers. I want some candy and a book about soldiers in my stockings. My little brother, Howard, cannot write. He wants me to tell you to bring him a sled and a ball and some candy in his stockings.
Yours truly,
Ramon McCune,
142 Harrison Street, Broad Oaks.

Dear Santa Claus:
Bring me a upright engine and a mechanical railway and a Indians suit and a air rifle; and also a sword and a cannon.
J. Harvey Fye,
247 Clay Street.

Dear Santa Claus:
I want a story book, pair of skates and a knife. Size of shoe, No. 2.
From Willie Smith, to Santa Claus,
1071 West Pike Street.

Dear Santa Claus:
I want a pair of skates and a story book. Size of shoe, No. 4.
From May Smith, to Santa Claus,
1071 West Pike Street.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am going to tell you what I want for Christmas. I want a pretty story book, and a game and some candy.
Yours truly,
Martha McCune,
142 Harrison Street, Broad Oaks.

Dear Santa Claus:
If you come to Clarksburg this Christmas I want you to bring me a gold ring and a pair of skates and a steam engine BIGGER than the one of Preston Gandy's that you are going to bring him, and you can bring me any old thing that you want to.
Good bye,
Hale Dowman,
641 West Pike Street.

Dear Santa Claus:
Will you bring me a pair of shoes? Please bring me a little drum. Will you bring me a wagon, and a little sweater and a little home. By Santa Claus. Kisses x x x x x
Raymond Welch.

Dear Santa:
Give Joseph a pair of shoes, a sweater a handkercher, a wagon, candy. By Joseph Welch.
349 Wilson Street.

Dear Santa Claus:
Will you please bring me a pair of leggings? Please bring me a doll and a doll trunk. Will you bring me a cart? Will you bring me a pair of shoes? And please bring me a doll chair and a set of fur and a sled. By Santa Claus. Kisses: x x x x x

Marion Welch.

Dear Santa Claus:
Please bring me a doll, a cart and a sled, a little dresser, a little cupboard, a tea set and a table. I live at 655 Mulberry street.
Your little friend,
Ethel L. Hess.

P. S.—Please do not forget to put some candy and nuts in my stocking. I will hang it up where you can find it easy.

Dear Santa Claus:
I want a little railroad, a little cannon, an air gun, a football suit and a football and a passenger depot. If you are hungry when you get to our house, go in the dining room and help yourself. I live at 655 Mulberry street.
Yours truly,
Victor Hess.

Dear Santa Claus:
I will tell you what I want for Christmas. I want a set of brown furs, a pair of skates, a pair of button leggings, a pair of dog-skin gloves, a sled, a ring and a music roll. That's all. Good bye. From.

POLICE RAID ROOMS

Above the Holly Saloon, in Glen Elk, and Arrest Men and Women Who Are Fined and Jailed by Mayor Shields in Police Court.

Officers Fox, Joyce and Lewis, of the city police force, swooped down upon several persons assembled in the rooms above the Holly saloon, which was formerly the All Nations Saloon, on North Fourth street, in Glen Elk, early Friday morning and arrested the occupants. They were Ethel Roarbaugh, May Roarbaugh, Florence Rhoady, Frank Carr, Sam Mirasko and Jerry Harbert. The raid was made by the officers upon information given to the department that that men and women were assembling in the room for the purpose of prostitution.

The prisoners were taken to police headquarters where the Rhoady woman and Harbert put up a ten dollars and costs each for their appearance at the next regular session of police court. The others were incarcerated. At the regular session of the court Friday Mayor Shields found the prisoners guilty of the charge preferred against them and fined them ten dollars and costs each. In default of payment they were given ten day sentences and remanded to the county jail. The two who put up for their appearance failed to show up at the promised time and their money was forfeited to the city treasury.

Charles Trough was run in by the police for being drunk. Mayor Shields gave him a fine of ten dollars and costs and in default of payment sent him to jail for ten days.

TALKING POLITICS

Are the Citizens of the Town of Adamston For the Town Election Which Will Be Held in a Few Weeks.

The citizens of the town of Adamston are beginning to talk town politics. The yearly election for town officers takes place January 3 and already several possible candidates for mayor, recorder and councilmen are talked of. Among those talked of for mayor are the present incumbent W. H. Camp, G. C. Southern, James C. Garrett, William J. Primm and William J. art. D. H. Cutright is talked of for recorder. J. W. Flanigan is the present recorder but he says he wouldn't have the job again under any consideration. Some of the citizens are in favor of re-electing the present councilmen who are J. E. Boyle, Grant U. Miller, J. E. Kidd, George R. Criss and A. E. Crimm. A great deal of discussion is being indulged in over the political situation in the stores and loafing places of evenings.
